

#MARCH 4WOMEN

-  March route
-  Step-free route
-  Marshall point

If you are a wheelchair user or have a mobility impairment, please speak to a marshall who will assist and direct you.

Timetable

We'll try to keep to this timetable but it might be subject to some small changes...

- 11am Warm-up entertainment with Morning Gloryville
- 12 noon Welcome from Helen Pankhurst
- 12.05 Live performance by Laura Mvula
- 12.10 Spotlight on refugee women: panel discussion hosted by Gemma Cairney with Ethiopian refugee and grassroots coordinator for Women for Refugee Women, Marchu Girma; Syrian refugee and Malala Fund campaigner for girls' education, Muzoon Almellehan, and her father Rakan; and CARE chief executive Laurie Lee
- 12.30 Live performance by Billy Bragg and Beth Orton
- 12.40 Speeches by Bianca Jagger, Sadiq Khan and Annie Lennox
- 12.50 Live performance by Emeli Sandé
- 1pm CARE-aoke! Sing 'Respect' with fabulous London choirs and famous singers including Melanie C, VV Brown, Kate Nash, Preeya Kalidas and Natasha Bedingfield
- Thank you so much to film composer and CARE supporter David Arnold for arranging and producing the CARE-aoke sing-a-long!*
- 1.20pm Assemble to march across Tower Bridge led by Annie Lennox, Sadiq Khan, Bianca Jagger, Helen Pankhurst, Muzoon Almellehan, David Arnold and other artists and activists
- 2.20pm Ending at the Tower of London concourse with thank-yous from modern-day suffragettes

Thank you to our #March4Women partners: The Circle, The Fawcett Society, Mayor of London, Morning Gloryville, White Ribbon Campaign, Women for Refugee Women, Working with Men

careinternational.org.uk

Registered charity no. 292506

